

Owen Griffiths

Workshop Presenter

Kent

Owen is an outgoing young man with a great sense of humour; he has an active social life and lots of friends

What makes Owen different?

Owen has had cerebral palsy since shortly after birth; it's a condition affecting the ability to control muscles. He is unable to walk and uses a powered wheelchair to get around. Owen's speech has been affected by his Cerebral Palsy. Owen lives independently employing a full time support assistant to help him with his everyday needs.

Other than that, he does what everyone else does.

Work experience

- Disability awareness training to social workers for Kent County Council
- HND in Media (moving pictures)
- Disability workshops in schools as a volunteer for a local charity

Interests

Owen is a huge sports fan! He particularly follows football, supporting Liverpool FC, golf and cricket. Over the years Owen has accumulated an impressive collection of sports memorabilia and has met a number of sporting legends.

Owen is also an avid reader and enjoys relaxing with his Xbox.
